

The Centre for Regional Policy Research and Cooperation "Studiorum", within the project "Solving an Institutional Puzzle: What National Human Rights Institution Model for Macedonia," supported by the National Endowment for Democracy from Washington, USA, publishes a call for papers for the Journal for European Issues "Evrodijalog" Vol. 16:

Special edition of the Journal for European Issues "Evrodijalog" on National Human Rights Institutions

(submissions dedicated to the institutional protection of human rights also accepted)

Deadline for submitting articles: 10 April 2012 (Extended deadline: 25 April, 2012).

"Evrodijalog" is a bi-annual publication of CRPRC Studiorum. The journal aims to promote objective, critical and analytical thinking on issues related to accession and membership in the European Union. For this issue of "Evrodijalog", we encourage authors to submit articles looking into national human rights institutions, their models and the institutional reforms shaping them. (The submitted academic articles can also look at the existing institutional framework for protection of human rights and/or recommendations for possible reforms of the later, in the case of Macedonia, the region, and/or wider, both as a case study, or comparatively).

"Evrodijalog" will also make space for the standard topic, notably EU issues in the fields of law, economy, public administration, international relations, political sciences, communication, new technologies and the society, energy issue, environment, health, and all other relevant fields, giving priority to research topics directly relevant from the perspective of the Copenhagen criteria and focused on analysis and case studies regarding the needs and requirements derived from the EU acquis unioaire.

The selected articles will be published in the 16th edition of "Evrodijalog," which will be published digital format on CD, in Macedonian and English language. Besides the CD, the journal will be published in both languages in electronic form at the "Evrodijalog" web site.
